Preamble

In honour of the two Sacred Hearts: The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Devotions to the Hearts are to be practised faithfully due to the sins of all humanity against God's Divine Love and Justice. The objective of this prayer meeting is to help Catholics in the community of prayers or in the cenacle of prayers to pray together and to acquire profound knowledge and wisdom of God's Divine Mercy. Moreover, it is of importance to beg God for His love and mercy in reparation of our sins and the sins of the whole world, and the sins that infiltrated within the Catholic Church today.

The Rosary is the prayer in consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mother Mary. Likewise, The Divine Mercy Chaplet is the prayer in consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Both prayers are very powerful tools against Satan and it is an act of deliverance of all our vices and of the heart of all mankind. Therefore, by consecration to these two Sacred Hearts, we plead God for His Mercy for our sins and the sins of all mankind in order that we will receive an abundance of graces, for our conversion, for the conversion in the heart of the Catholic Church and for the conversion of Russia (this is in line to the message of Fatima) as well as for the conversion of hearts of all humanity in the whole world. This Devotions also help strengthen and nurture our spirituality with these three main Catholic virtues: Faith, Hope and Love.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayer, in particular, is given by Jesus to Maria Faustyna Kowalska (born Helena Kowalska; 25 August 1905 – 5 October 1938[1]), also known as Saint Maria Faustyna Kowalska of the Blessed Sacrament and popularly spelled "Faustina", was a Polish Roman Catholic nun and mystic¹. Her apparitions of Jesus Christ inspired the Roman Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy and earned her the title of "Secretary of Divine Mercy". The Catholic Church canonized Kowalska as a saint on 30 April 2000. The mystic is classified in the liturgy as a virgin and is venerated within the church as the "Apostle of Divine Mercy" (¹ibid). On 14th

September 1935, Jesus told Sister Faustina to give His message to the world and to always recite the Chaplet, and thereby for Catholics, it is crucial to practise reciting the prayer henceforth. On this specific date, Jesus said to Sister Faustina: "Say the Chaplet that I taught you. Whoever says so will experience My Mercy throughout his life, and especially at the time of his death." ²

Our Lady of Fatima appears to Lucia; Lucia is one of the three visionaries; the others are Jacinta and Francesco. Mother Mary continued to appear to Sr. Lucia many times, and three particular messages of Her to Lucia stand out:

- + Request for the 1st Saturday Devotion (10/12/1925)
- + Request to spread the First Saturday Devotion (15/02/1926)
- + Request for the consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (June 1929)³

The programme of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayer begins from April to December yearly, on every first Friday of the month. In brief, the Devotions to the two Sacred Hearts takes 9 consecutive months yearly. These Devotions are to consecrate to the two Sacred Hearts in reparation for all the sins that are committed against God in the Sacrament of His Love. Whereas other months, from January to March, the prayer meeting will be at the end of every month and it will take place in Cornesse at my residence every year.

The programme is made up of complete prayers and devotional activities for faith enlightenment. If you can attend the Devotions for all the 9 meetings faithfully, it will be wonderful - you will receive a lot of blessings and graces from God and Mother Mary. Otherwise, it is not a matter, but it is a committed devotion.

Important Notice

Every year, from April onwards, the prayer meeting will be held at the Shrine of the Good Old God in Tancrémont, every first Friday of the month. And, from January to March, the prayer meeting will be held in Cornesse at our home, every 4th Sunday of the month. Every 1st Saturday of the Month there is a Holy Mass (in Latin) at the Chapel, in response to Mother Mary's request of the Devotion to Her Immaculate Heart. For more details, please see the given program presented in this leaflet.
